Notice of Launch of Collaborative Business between Cars and Electricity with Itochu Enex Life Service Co., Ltd. and Nissan Osaka Sales Co., Ltd.

Itochu Enex Co., Ltd. (headquartered in Minato-ku, Tokyo; Kenji Okada, Representative Director; hereinafter “Itochu Enex”) hereby announces that Itochu Enex Life Service Co., Ltd. (hereinafter “Enex Life Service”), which was established in July 2016 to support the lifestyle-related business of partner corporations for their customers, will commence the Collaborative Business between Cars and Electricity in January 2017 with Nissan Osaka Sales Co., Ltd., one of the Itochu Enex Group companies.

The Collaborative Business between Cars and Electricity is the business of selling electricity* to customers who have purchased a car at Nissan Osaka Sales Co., Ltd. We plan to propose a menu of services synergizing with the cars purchased, such as a special plan for electric vehicle owners.

Enex Life Service is committed to enriching people’s lives through partnerships with corporate customers in fields other than the energy industry by collaboratively proposing lifestyle-related services for retail customers offered by corporate customers in different fields. The detailed contents of the business are to provide the following services, some of which have already been commenced. On this occasion, for full-scale business expansion, we concluded a distribution agreement with Nissan Osaka Sales Co., Ltd., and we will provide electricity for customers of the company.

Itochu Enex will add value to lifestyle-related services through collaborative proposals with corporate customers in different fields through the functionality of Enex Life Service. We will work to enhance our corporate value going forward as a partner for society and life. * The electricity sales company is Enex Life Service, which is a registered retail electricity supplier.
